Amendment of Information Booklet in respect of regulation for admission to Ph.D. Programme as hoisted in the website of WBUHS vide Memo No. COE/UHS/206/2017 dated 02-03-2017

There are some PG courses where marks are not given. Candidates are declared “Pass “or “Fail ”

In view of representation from candidates who passed their PG Degree courses or equivalent in such type of course. Such candidates will mention the name of the course and in place of percentage of marks will write “passed”.

Therefore , Clause 1 of sub-clause (d) , candidates who passed in any discipline where marks are not awarded will be allowed to fill up forms subject to fulfilling all the conditions under clause (1) sub clause (a), (b) and (c). Mandatory field of marks next below eligible qualification is relaxed for such category. But those candidates are not exempted for appearing at the Entrance Examination. Other conditions remain same.
