Memo. no. COE/UHS/1305 /2016

09.11.2016

NOTICE

In view of press release by the Ministry of Finance, Govt. of India on 8.11.2016 ,the currency of high denomination like Rs. 500/- and Rs. 1000/- issued by Reserve Bank of India are not to be accepted as legal tender.

Now, question is raised regarding submission of fees with current on-going filling up of forms for academic examinations. (mostly in the modern medicines.)

All Director/Principals of Medical Colleges are requested to allow students to deposit the examination fees with the condition that last date of submission of forms for 2nd Prof. MBBS 2017 remain unchanged. Relaxation is allowed by one/two days in filling up form beyond cut-off date .The respective forms should reach on scheduled date. If forms do not reach within the stipulated date, the late fee will be imposed as stated earlier.

For submission of forms in Competency Based Evaluation Test (CBET) 2016, the last date of submission of forms is extended for 5 days but the date of examination will remain same.
